What we can offer?

At Mercy Connect, we have many options to support you whilst you reside with us. This includes:

- supporting you 24/7
- providing you with fully accessible accommodation
- accommodation available to you during holiday breaks and public holidays
- a range of activities and programs for you to participate in
- giving you the choice of how long you stay. Overnight, short or extended stays are available.

Avondale Place is suitable for people who have high or complex needs. It can also be accessed for planned rest or for emergency accommodation and may be used as often as required or as a one-off.

Where is this service available and who can I contact?

Avondale Place is based in Henty, NSW. Our qualified and experienced Operations Team will support you throughout your stay.

If you would like more information, please get in touch with us by calling 02 6043 3500 or email us at: enquiries@mercyconnect.org.au.
