

Abbeyfield Koorinal

Abbeyfield provides a blend of style and comfort in an independent living community, offering support and the convenience of an on-site caretaker.

mercy
connect together we grow

Abbeyfield
Australia

Abbeyfield Koorinal

Abbeyfield Australia is a national not-for-profit community housing provider operating 23 Abbeyfield houses. Together with Mercy Connect, we are committed to the development and support of sustainable community-based housing.

New South Wales
Championing Health

Winner

2024 Telstra Best of Business Awards
#TelstraBestofBusinessAwards

Room information

- Each unit features two modestly sized bedrooms with built-in wardrobes. One bedroom includes an ensuite, while the other has access to a separate bathroom.
- The units come fully furnished, except for the bedrooms.

Current Support Model

- Affordable, supportive, safe, long-term secure accommodation.
- On-site Welfare Officer for emergencies.
- Increased community participation and lessening of isolation for people living in areas with limited access to lifestyle and social relationship choices.
- Building long-term friendships within a safe and supported community group.
- No up-front entrance fee or bond required.
- Increased capacity to make choices and be involved in decision making.
- Additional supports can be requested from on-site staff or with external supports of your choice.

Accessibility

- The unit is not wheelchair accessible.
- The unit is not suitable for people with high intellectual needs and physical disabilities.

Factors to consider if you are interested in applying:

- Age range of 18 - 60, any gender.
- The applicant is on disability support pension to pay rent.
- The applicant is prepared to sign (or a representative to sign) a Residence Agreement.
- The applicant is prepared to undergo a three month probation.

Where is this service & who can I contact?

Abbeyfield Koorinal is based in Wagga Wagga, NSW. If you would like more information please call 02 6043 3500 or emailing us at intake@mercyconnect.org.au to speak with our team today.